Pacific Senators

The Union in its political classification of the present Senate, puts the members from Oregon, and McDougal from California among the thirteen copperheads, who occupy seats in that body while Conness is counted as the only supporter of the Administration. Though our cotemporary is generally very correct in its statements, we think it hardly does justice to Nesmith and Harding—as to McDougal it may be right, and if so the Union men who secured his election slipped up on a slippery Democrat. We hope however, for the honor of our State, and its Senators, that those who elected Nesmith and Harding will not be compelled to acknowledge that they have been made victims of a similar imposition. We admit that since their election they and particularly Mr H, have said and done things which in our judgment are inconsistent with that unconditional loyalty to the Union which was professed by them, and but for which, they never could have been permitted to occupy their present positions. In this they have greatly disappointed those who trusted them, but still we should be sadly surprised and mortified if we were compelled to believe that the Union is justified in classing them among the persistent and avowed opponents of the Government. We do not know its sources of information, and cannot but hope that it is in error and that their future action will prove that they will not be unfaithful to their repeated pledges or that they think more of trying to build up a defeated and despised political party, to which they once belonged, than of laboring to sustain the nation in its mighty conflict for self preservation against southern traitors and their northern allies

Democratic Malice.

We sometimes hear those who oppose the war and sustain the rebellion, express their indifference to the sickness sacrifices and sufferings of our brave and patriotic soldiers, and in a few instances, some of these heartless traitors have openly rejoiced at the heavy disasters which battle and pestilence have brought upon the armies of the Union. This fiendish and inhuman barbarity would seem incredible if the men who revel in it had hearts or consciences, but as they seem only to care for the success of their party and the overthrow of the government, it is not strange that they should be gratified whenever their ungodly schemes are forwarded by the death or disease of gallant and patriotic men. No appeal to their sympathy meets any response. Their reply is "the soldiers volunteered, let them bear what they invited by going to the war if it were not for them, the south would be independent." Such words flow from the lips of northern traitors—words which fully prove their treason, and their malignant hate of the bold defenders of the flag, who, amid the smoke and thunder of battle, have been maimed for life, perhaps sealed their devotion by their death, or suffered agonies more severe and full of torture than even dying can bring. Alas, that there should be, in the land, such atrocious living libels on humanity and patriotism! Their very presence is a curse and a nuisance, and if they were consumed by the flames of a just popular indignation, their loss would be a blessing. Yet they live to rejoice in the miseries of the heroic men whose breasts defend the existence of the Republic from the bullets of traitors. they live, but their life is black with disloyalty and shall be infamous while it lasts. Immortal laurels shall deck the brows of those whom they despise and abuse. A nation will honor forever, the memory and the heroic services of its patriotic army, while cowardly traitors shall be covered with shame and contempt, till they go down

To the vile dust from whence they sprung,
Unwept, unhonored and unsung.

Defence of the Mississippi.—The Marine brigade, composed of eight of the largest river boats, and amply protected by outside works has been turned over to the army, and will be used hereafter for the purpose of securing the peaceful navigation of the river. Either of these boats is so equipped that it can land, and in less than 15 minutes send on shore fully armed and mounted 100 cavalry and 500 infantry. One of the brigades in this manner recently captured along with Trusten Polk, a vast amount of Confederate money a great variety of stores and most important rebel dispatche

Convicted.—We learn that Van Tidennal, tried at the Dalles for the murder of McDaniel, was found guilty of manslaughter. The verdict seems to have surprised those acquainted with the facts

Are 'Greenbacks' Good Money?

While the nation is rocking under the armed assertion of "State Rights" it is wise policy to watch with careful scrutiny the acts of all persons especially those in authority the effect of which will be to endorse a theory which underlies the present rebellion and lays a corner stone for further revolution

I direct no phillippic against persons or factions but would suggest careful attention and consideration to the topic at the head of this article. The Congress of the United States passed a Law for the issue of Legal Tender Notes one provision of which was that these notes should be a legal tender for all debts public and private except duties on imports and interest on the public debt. While the passage of this law was regarded by some as the exercise of an unconstitutional power (two of our five Judges refused to concur in a decision by which the constitutionality of the law was affirmed,) that point is now so well settled that sensible men need no further argument to reach a conclusion in favor of the law as a fact, though they may have doubted it as an abstract theory

Legal tender notes, then, are MONEY, under the laws of the United States, and also under the highest law of our State, and, as money are receivable for all debts, public and private, with two special exceptions made in the law itself. For the question of the policy of the law, as we have said, it is practically settled, and if not, there is no room for it in our argument

These notes issued by the Government of the United States, are good money, both by the Supreme Law of the land and also by our State Supreme Court, three of whose five Judges concurred in that decision at the last term. Now the question I would ask is—

"Where does any man under these laws acquire a right to set these very laws at defiance?"

Legal tender notes are the people's money. With this they pay the President of the United States, Members of Congress, soldiers in the Army and Navy, and for every man employed by the people to serve them directly under the General Government. This paper to which is pledged the faith of the United States is good money. Throughout the entire Commonwealth, except the States in active rebellion and those lying on the Pacific coast, this issue of Government money is the only currency and the assertion may be hazarded without fear of contradiction, that the people at large are greatly benefitted by their introduction. They introduce a degree of uniformity and stability which our paper money has never before known. They drive out of existence the thousand "wild cat" banks with their issues of trash, and put the immense profits of that business (excluding their ultimate dodge of repudiation,) in the pockets of the people. But I am wandering from the point which I set out to reach, and though the subject is one of interest in all its relations the limits of this article permit but a glance at one or two of its most important bearings on the rights and interests of the people

A fiction has been propagated, (perhaps by those interested,) that United States legal tender notes are not good money to pay State taxes—not good money to pay County taxes—no! not good to pay fines and penalties to any local corporation organized under State Law. Shades of Calhoun! and has it come to this! The State must nullify a solemn act of Congress. But not content with this violent assumption, they would delegate the same unwarranted prerogative to each small corporation in the State. The people are deeply wronged in this matter, and as the remedy must come from themselves, their voice should be raised in an unmistakable manner. If we have not been deluded to believe that "Governments are for the good of the people" then their money is good to pay their servants in all cases. If unfortunately, the reverse is true—"greenbacks" are then not good to feather the nests of office holders, but gold must be had at any cost

VOX POPULI

Pacific Coast Land Matters.—The Union's Washington correspondence contains the following:—

The General Land Office has just completed an arrangement which goes at once into effect by which the compensation of the employes of the Land Department on the Pacific coast and all other expenses will be more promptly met than heretofore. It has been the practice to have at headquarters account of expenses from all the Land Offices forwarded to the General Land Office at the expiration of the quarter, where they were examined and, if approved, drafts were forwarded at the earliest convenient time but by the new arrangements the Land Offices in California Washington and Oregon are to be allowed to make out and send on their quarterly accounts six weeks before the expiration of the quarter, and if any changes are made up to the end of the quarter the General Land Office is to be notified by telegraph when the account can be audited and drafts at once transmitted so that the long delays heretofore existing can be obviated by this convenient plan of Commissioner Edmunds

The General Land Office is now doing a large amount of business under the Oregon Donation law there being now over two thousand applications for patents under the new law. The old law being objectionable in many of its features there were but few applications under it and during the past six months a new impetus seems to have been given to the desire of settlers to procure land in this way, so that more patents have been issued during the present year than for the pace of twelve year anterior thereto being, as above stated more than two thousand such cases from Oregon and Washington now in process of completion at the General Land Office in Washington. The general average of these claims under the Donation Act is of 320 acre tracts so that the logical conclusion is that over 640,000 acres of land in Oregon and Washington have been taken up by actual settlers. This is a gratifying fact for the consideration of our enterprising and thriving neighbors on the Pacific coast

Glad to know it.—We recently copied a statement, that Prentice of the Louisville Journal was in favor of Vallandigham's election. We thought it unaccountable at the time, and now learn that it was untrue and probably an electioneering lie to secure support for the Ohio rebel. When Prentice heard of the story he denied it thus

JOURNAL OFFICE
Louisville (Ky) Oct 1st 1863

Dear Sir: I did not support Mr Vallandigham for the Governorship of Ohio. I wouldn't have done it to save my life. You may say that to any one interested in knowing it. I consider Mr Vallandigham a traitor.
Very respectfully,
GEORGE D PRENTICE

We like that—it is to the point, and coming from a patriotic Kentuckian who has no sympathy with abolition we put it on record in Oregon alongside of the declaration of Northern flunkeys and doughfaces that if they were in Ohio, they would vote for the man whom Prentice considers a traitor rather than for an abolitionist. Prentice is doubtless wrong in some, perhaps many of his border State prejudices, but the above letter shows that his loyalty is far above that of the milk and water Union men who make it the tool of their Democracy so long as it pays

Receding.—The waters in the Willamette receded somewhat yesterday, and will perhaps continue to recede until they—find their level

The President [illegible] His disease [illegible]

The Times [illegible] Dec [illegible] the President's [illegible] rebel [illegible] We have [illegible] United States [illegible] for nearly three years [illegible] with any other country. A Treasury Department that has failed to keep its finances [illegible] War Department [illegible] Chief who [illegible] A Navy Department without [illegible] A Post Office Department with a very shocking system of mails. [illegible] going into deep waters and a feeling of dread is [illegible] the souls of the people. The one thing the President can do that will secure [illegible] is calling to his Cabinet the wisest and most experienced men in the country. The time is propitious and the occasion is urgent. The people anxiously expect such action. For the sake of his [illegible] own capacity for his future and future fame as well as on account of the survival [illegible] our country we earnestly press this recommendation

Up Country News.—We take the following items from the Walla Walla Statesman of December 12th

It is the current opinion among Idaho politicians that the capital of that Territory will be removed by the Legislature to Boise City in Boise valley

There has been a great deal of sickness at Boise during the past two months. The principal complaints have been mountain and typhoid fevers which have in many cases proved fatal

Messrs C P Wilson & Co have commenced running an Express between Walla Walla, Moore's Basin and Owyhee. This express arrangement will be kept up during the winter, making weekly trips between the above points. The Messenger will leave this place every Wednesday and will carry letters packages etc etc

Lieut G A Cabanniss A A Q M at the Fort, was thrown from his buggy some twelve days ago and so severely injured that his life is despaired of. His team had started to run away, and in attempting to turn the horses the buggy was upset and the Lieutenant was thrown violently upon his head. He was picked up in a senseless condition and has remained so ever since excepting at very short intervals. Dr Steinberger was in the buggy with him at the time of the accident and was also thrown out but not seriously hurt.

MRS MAGRUDER AND THE MURDERERS

Mrs Magruder accompanied by her three children visited the prisoners at the Luna House in Lewiston. Mrs M asked them to tell her what they had done with the body of her husband? The prisoners were silent for some time. At length Howard answered that the last he saw of him, was about seventy miles from Lost Bannock. She then said to her eldest child, Johnny, beg these gentlemen to tell you what they did with your father? The child with streaming eyes asked them to give him back his father. The mother then, with frantic grief implored the men to tell her—and said she had friends who would bring the body to her

—The prisoners were very much affected during the scene and when Mrs M had left the room Howard exclaimed to the guard "For God's sake don't let that woman come again. My father died suddenly and I know how that woman feels. She feels like my mother did and if I had a million dollars I would give it sooner than see her again"

There are two kinds of girls. One is the kind that appears best abroad—the girls that are good for parties rides visits balls etc and whose chief delight is in such things. The other is that kind that appears best at home—the girls that are useful and cheerful in the dining room and all the precincts of home

NEW TO-DAY.

Notice.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Stockholders of the Aurora Canal Company will be held at their Office in Portland on Monday, December 21st 1863 at 2 o'clock P M for the election of officers and the transaction of such business as may legally come before them.

THERE is no other way to cure diseases but by first purifying the whole system so as to create a healthy circulation.

The first medical men of the age agree with us that no disease of any extent [illegible] with [illegible] that will act directly upon the blood. Why many medical men have failed to cure chronic diseases is [illegible] the medicines used [illegible] will act beneficially on the blood

The [illegible] thousands of bottles which have been used by the public, and the many gallons and barrels supplied to the physicians warrant us in saying that the last two years we have been more successful with our Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup in curing hopeless cases of chronic diseases than have any other remedies in the hands of physicians, or before the public

It is now admitted that no remedy [illegible] known to the profession [illegible] so promptly [illegible] diseases as our SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP

The President's Message.—We half promised last week to give this document to our readers, the delay is not our fault, as the man who made it did not make it in season, and those who bring it round were slow in their movements. We expect however, to receive a copy to-night, in time, as we hope, to publish to-morrow

We have a few items from the East this morning which were not published with the steamer's news and presume that we shall have additional intelligence every mail until the Oregon arrives, now on the way to this city, via Victoria

The Fair and Supper.—The ladies of the M E church and congregation entertained a crowd of friends at their levee last night, and so far as we could learn everybody was there, gratified their appetites and their curiosity, and went away leaving their kindliest wishes and their loose change. We beg to acknowledge the evidences of remembrance upon which the printers regaled themselves at a late hour. May the seance be frequently and successfully repeated

Shooting Excitement.—A shot gun was discharged yesterday afternoon, at the corner of First and Washington street, creating quite a sensation within a radius of two blocks. More bare heads were visible protruding from doors and windows than are generally discoverable in a month. We did not learn whether the discharge was accidental or otherwise

Steamer E D Baker.—Workmen were busily engaged yesterday in drawing the E D Baker as far as possible on to the shore, in order that her machinery may be got out. It is said that her bottom is in such condition as to render her future use highly improbable

On Dit.—It is rumored that our public school will shortly be without a Principal by the resignation of Mr McBride. If this is true, we hope the situation will be filled by the most competent scholar whose services are accessible for the salary, without any regard to the favoritism which too often is permitted to regulate such important matters

Mild Weather.—The weather for the past day or two has been quite mild, so that even the sun ventured a glance at our improvements of the past week. They didn't appear satisfactory, for he immediately drew a veil over his face and weeps most of the time since

Gold.—The steamer Hunt last night came down with one hundred passengers, and some $80,000 in private hands. Mr West, Wells Fargo & Co's Express messenger, brought down $25,000

Freights.—Quite a heavy amount of merchandise comes down daily on the Oregon City boats. The Express arrived last evening with a good cargo

"The Seattle Gazette."—This is the title of a neat little paper issued by J R Watson & Co, at Seattle, W T. Mr Watson is a good writer, a loyal citizen, and will materially advance the prosperity of the most valuable portion of the Sound country if they give him half a chance

"Puget Sound Herald."—We are glad to find that Charles Prosch, Esq, at Steilacoom, has resumed the publication of his paper. It comes to us enlarged and improved, devoted almost entirely to literature. We wish him a success commensurate with his enterprise

School Exhibition at Belpassi.—By a private letter we are informed that the students of Prof Henderson's school at Belpassi, Marion county, are preparing to give a public exhibition on New Year's night. The school is highly spoken of, and a grand time is expected

Progressive.—Mr Zahniser, at Belpassi, Marion county, has in successful operation, the pioneer steam tannery of Oregon. The enterprise promises to be eminently successful and the proprietor is now prepared to furnish skins tanned, or leather made up into all articles required by the trade

Auction Sale.—A B Richardson, Auctioneer, advertises this morning to sell at his Auction Mart, Front street, on Wednesday Dec 30th, lots 1 and 2, block 139, fenced and enclosing a new cottage house, with 7 rooms, outhouses, &c. Also, on next Tuesday, 22d inst., on premises, opposite Post Office, the stock and fixtures of Mr Troutt's carpet warehouse. A rare chance is thus offered to furnish suitable floor coverings cheap. Read the advertisements, and attend the sales

It is amazing to witness the perfection to which Sewing Machines have been brought at the present day, and the unlimited variety of work which can be performed by one at least, of the many styles before the public. We have been astonished of late, at the effect which the present fashion has produced in the elegant and elaborate embroidery and braiding which forms so beautiful a trimming for the garments of our lady friends. How is it done? How is it possible in so short a time for such an immense amount of embroidery to be executed as has made its appearance of late? Our answer was that with a "Grover & Baker" Sewing Machine anything was possible that it would embroider or braid as rapidly as it would sew and to trim a garment in the height of fashion was a fascinating pleasure unknown to any but the fortunate possessor of this marvelous machine

LLOYD BROOKE

Married by Mistake—Minnesota Law.

In the [illegible] rural district of Winona, [illegible] miles north of La Crosse, on the Minnesota side of the Mississippi river, lives, among several other people, a jolly good fellow of a justice of the peace, whose notions of matters are much like the current of the [illegible] river. Once started in a [illegible] it is hard to turn them. One fine day [illegible] law dispensary had been swept out, the boots had been set in a short row against the side of the office, and sundry chipped quids of tobacco and [illegible] cigar [illegible] had been kicked under the stove, there was a [illegible] step on the stairs and a vigorous knock at the door.

"Come in," said the justice, as he settled into a legal look so befitting a man who is elected to dispense the favors of the blind goddess.

A stout woman entered. She had on a short woollen dress, wooden soled shoes, sported red cheeks, black hair, and eyes that snapped like the lock of a shot-gun. In a Portuguese accent, and in the worst possible English, she said:

"You law man?"

"Yes, madam; be seated."

"Want paper—want paper to take man."

Just then a stout French half breed entered the room. He was unable to speak half a dozen words, and looked rather scared or bashful. The judge saw at once that there was a marriage to come off, and said to the woman who stood with compressed lips watching the justice and the door:

"Want paper to take this man?"

"Yes, want paper—me take him. [Nice woman thought the justice.] He no good; me take him so quick as can."

"All right, my cavies—fix you in the jerk of a lamb's tail!" said the justice, as he turned to the man and said:

"You know this woman—can you take her?"

The man shook his head and muttered unintelligible words.

"Ah! I see. 'Can't talk English.' Well, never mind."

He ran into the street, invited a few friends up stairs, and on returning with them said to the woman:

"You want to take this man for better or for worse?"

"Yes, me want to take him—me pay."

"All right!" Then turning to the man, who stood trembling—

"You take this woman for better or for worse, and promise to keep her," etc.

"Umph!" and several nods of the head.

"Then, in the name of the law, and by virtue of the authority in me vested, I pronounce you man and wife." And he stepped forward before the woman could say a word, and kissed her red lips.

Slap came her hand in his face, and she clutched his hair. The new husband jumped in to take the woman away, and to protect her, as the justice supposed, when in self-preservation he hit him a rip on the nose. The woman pitched into the new husband, who in turn pitched into her, and for about five minutes there was a general hustling and a display of legs, garters and things decidedly astonishing.

At last the parties were separated, when the man and woman took another turn at each other, the blood and hair flying in all directions. Down came the stove, over went the table, clatter went the chairs, and into the street like mad went the justice with a black eye, and the bosom of his shirt looking like a warranty deed covered with red seals.

A crowd rushed up stairs and found the man and woman lying on the floor, hugging each other like young bruins, their arms and legs mixed up worse than tomato-vines, the woman on top!

The newly married couple were separated, when, through the aid of two interpreters, it was discovered that the night before, the parties occupying adjoining shanties in the lower part of the town, had got into a quarrel over a stovepipe, which was claimed by both, and from words they had come to blows. Each party had hastened to the justice's office in the morning for a warrant for the other with the result as stated above. The last news from there was, that the parties had gone in search of another justice to unmarry them, while the genial cause of their terrible squabble was "setting up the boy," and bathing his bunged eye with whisky. For an actual fact, it is the richest within our knowledge.—La Crosse Democrat.

LETTER FROM A SOUTHERN MAN TO HIS SON IN THE REBEL ARMY.—The following is one of many letters, taken by Army officers recently, and we publish it as a proof that there are still some in the South, whose senses and judgment are not entirely obscured and blunted by the seditious influences which have been at work there:

MY DEAR SON: The Government are buying all the oxen, wagons and cotton they can get here, to go to Mexico, at the highest figures if you count paper dollars, and some say they are threatening to take what cotton they can get at fifteen cents. Mine is well stored away, and I will not sell it for forty cents a pound in this currency. If they take it I have then something to say I never have said, and I shall not be alone to speak. The spirit of "give me liberty or give me death" is fast swelling the heart of many a [illegible]. The cup of despotism is nearly full to overflowing. The reign of terror, sooner or later, finds a limit to its iron grasp. Our kind Heavenly Father looks down and finding no man that is able to wield the scepter of just control, [illegible] interferes Himself and avenges the wrongs of his chosen ones. Is not the voice of thousands of innocent ones, both in and out of the war, crying to God from the ground? Your mother, like many others, sleeps, but yet she speaks. I never in my life told or wrote a scandalous tale to excite and array the North against the South, or the South against the North. I never laid violent hands upon the constitution that I was sworn to support, and said I would no longer be governed by its teachings. But our preachers are everywhere [illegible] to [illegible] us by telling us this war is for our sins. But God does not say so. He says every man shall suffer for his own sins, so far as He inflicts. You and I and your mamma have suffered in this war, but it was not the hand of God against us, it was the hand of wicked men. I have been a great sinner against God, but I have never sinned against my nation. This war may be sent for the preacher's sins, but I am not green enough to say, yes, and for mine too. Let the preacher who encourages and leads on thousands to take the life of his fellow countrymen take heed lest he fall under the condemnation of those murderers who shall have their part in the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone for ever and ever. An eternity of happiness or misery is of too much moment to be trifled with, and I will never trifle with it although my body be killed a thousand times told. But I will rather fear Him who can destroy soul and body in hell. I speak as a dying man to one who must sooner or later die. May you die the death of the righteous, and may our last end be like [illegible] my prayer. But our preachers tell us if we are scrupulous about taking life in this war, that the Bible requires us "to obey the powers that be." Well, I suppose then that if a band of robbers and murderers had captured me in my house and taken me to the house of a dear brother, I must kill that brother because [illegible] they told me to do it or they would kill me, and they had become the powers that be. What will God do to such shepherds of his flock for such perversion of his sacred word? Conscience is a friendly monitor, and if cultivated will guide us in matters of right and wrong. This things bears too heavily on my mind to [illegible] hold speaking, lest my God holds me accountable for my silence. The Bible says: "Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind." I am persuaded that this war is wrong and uncalled for, and no power has any right to force me into it against my judgment [illegible] any more than it has a British or French [illegible]. I cannot find a man who can give even a plausible reason for this dreadful war, that is to [illegible] the eternal destiny of thousands; but they say that we are in it, and that we [illegible] must fight it out, or the world will say that they whipped us. [illegible] Ought the Government of a good father [illegible] and beat his father [illegible] that father [illegible] of his son. Awful fall [illegible] like the prodigal [illegible] be killed. [illegible] exists, [illegible] out. "If I [illegible]." Those were [illegible] wise as those that [illegible] they say we could never live without fighting again with a good feeling [illegible] enter [illegible] other; but I have known many instances where they have done it, and better sons than ever before after they found place for repentance. INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters, which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the [illegible]

Hoofland's German Bitters

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
PHYSICIANS
CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle of Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposure and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August [illegible]

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances, and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
